

Minutes from the meeting “It is easy to Teach, if you know how”
Jelenia Góra , 20-21st of June 2018

Day 1: Wednesday, 20th of June, 2018

1. An international seminar summarizing the project
"It's easy to teach - if you know how"

Seminar program:

- Beginning of the seminar
- Memory in seniors' age - Danuta Sadownik
- When is the right time to learn? Reasons why adults should learn foreign languages – Jolanta Ratyńska
- Motivation – the key to effective learning - Małgorzata Pokosz
- Methods of work developed in the project “It's easy to teach - if you know how”. Effects of implementation activities. – Maja Huminiłowicz

- What is the challenge in the language education of people aged 50+
Experiences of teachers from UCLA in Toledo and Cuenca, e-Seniors from Paris and the "Aktywni XXI" Foundation from Jelenia Góra – Maja Huminiłowicz
- End of the seminar

2. Open language workshops taught by teachers conducting classes in the project workshops conducted by Diana Smith and Maja Huminiłowicz.

Day 2: Thursday, 21st of June, 2018

- ✓ Evaluation of the listener's needs - comparison of the results of the initial and final survey
- ✓ Discussing the activity on the project fanpage
- ✓ Summary of project activities of the Spanish partner

- ✓ Summary of project activities of the French partner
- ✓ Summary of project activities of the Polish partner
- ✓ Discussion of the impact of the project on international relationships and proposals for the continuation of actions initiated by the participation in the project
- ✓ Development of materials to the final report
- ✓ Evaluation
- ✓ Administrative activities, participation certificates
- ✓ End of the meeting

